is there a hole in your heart or am i mistaken i can see your capillary veins you be the patient, I'll be the surgeon just like 1st grade on the playground all day and soon enough you'll hear the black top calling for you after that there is not much else you can do

I am a pirate you are a princess we could sail the seven seas
bring back some presents
for all the people
everyone will love us even Courtney will love us

I am a pirate you are a princess
we could sail the seven seas
for all the people

have you forgotten your place I'm being sarcastic that step could kill a bus of kids Yeah, we have a good thing she is a bad thing why would she want to break us who would want to break us, Yeah And soon enough you'll hear the black top calling your name
every day your life will never be the same

I am a pirate you are a princess
we could sail the seven seas
for all the people
I am a pirate you are a princess
we could sail the seven seas
for all the people

I am a pirate you are a princess
we could sail the seven seas
for all the people
I am a pirate you are a princess
we could sail the seven seas
for all the people
