You were the best thing summer gave me
Better than silence and no school
No curfew and no rules

I was the last thing you expected
To become part of your life
To become part of your life

So sing this song
While you drive home, baby, you drive home, baby
I will sing along
From another country, another country

And do, do, goes the telephone
While the planes and trains
Won't let me go, oh no
Pass the world and I will go there

And when the pollination starts
In the springtime, baby, the springtime, baby
Can you map out all the parks?
If you find time, baby, I'll find time, baby

And I have nothing to say other than I love you
And I'll stay if you want me
If you let me, I will go
And if you let me, I will

So sing this song
While you drive home, baby, you drive home, baby
I will sing along
From another country, another country

And do, do, goes the telephone
While the planes and trains
Won't let me go, oh no
Pass the world and I will go there

If I admit that I was wrong
In the right tone, baby, the right tone, baby
And pretend that I belong
In the same room maybe, the same room maybe

And I have nothing to say about this
I love you and I'll stay if you want it
If you let me, I will go
And if you let me, I will go

You were the best thing summer gave me

So sing this song
While you drive home, baby, you drive home, baby
I will sing along
From another country, another country

And do, do, goes the telephone
While the planes and the trains
Won't let me go, oh no
Pass the world and I will go there

So sing this song
While you drive home, baby, you drive home, baby
I will sing along
From another country, another country
Oh no
