Doo Doo we've been stocking up on supplies
La La that we probably won't need soon
Until the avian flu
Comes out of Asia and into your lungs
Time to get what you deserve...

Darling I've been working hard to support
This habit but please baby don't act surprised
Cause I know we could have
A little fun if we don't suffer
Wake up this pandemic is about to start
Try hard to lock the doors and let no one in Paranoia is a common trend
In this day and age so time to get what you deserve

My lungs are inhaling too much air
Increase my chance of catching something bad
Airborne particles that carry the disease I fear

Try hard not to get caught without a mask
Looting has plagued these city streets before
City streets of Baltimore in 1904
