I retreat to my corner
When you get back in yours
I retract all my statements
When you retract your clothes

But darling I don't wanna lose you, not tonight
But darling I don't wanna lose you, not tonight, no not tonight

Just put your little hand in mine, dry your eyes
We only as sick as our secrets
You know I don't lie " but sometimes I lie

Now our eyes fill with water
While our bones soak with rage
I didn't want to end it like this
But I won't survive in this cage

But darling I don't wanna lose you, not tonight
Darling I don't wanna lose you, not tonight, no not
tonight

Just put your little hand in mine, dry your eyes
We only as sick as our secrets
You know I don't lie " but sometimes I lie

As we sink beneath sound stained sheets
All tangled up in blue
Oh Lord I have trouble
Trouble admitting
That your lies " your lies were all true

Darling I don't wanna lose you, not tonight
Darling I don't wanna lose you, not tonight, no not
tonight
Darling I don't wanna lose you, not tonight
Darling I don't wanna lose you, not tonight
Darling I don't wanna lose you, not tonight
Darling I don't wanna lose you, not tonight
Darling I don't wanna lose you, not tonight
