Lurid dimensions burn my eyes
Lucid sounds of empty sights
As darkness washed around my face

Strangling, raping, killing the gods (false images)
Catharsis boiling through my veins
Eternity of euphoric pains

Genocide

Darkness fills the face of entangled lies Pity the lost souls that haunt me bleeding without a sound
Dark blood runs in me

I speak within the temple of blasphemy
Another mistook word, another road that leads to death
Where does this torment end?

Strangling, raping, killing the gods (false images)
Catharsis boiling through my veins
Eternity of euphoric pains

Within the deities of perversion,
And the distortion of their judgement
Lies the oblivious palace of exile

Cover up bloodless wounds
With my hand I held them close
The rotting dead, eternal ghosts

Sharpened screams pierce my soul
Lurid dimensions burn my eyes
Lucid sounds of empty sights
As darkness washed around my face

Genocide
