This horrid seed twisting churning inside of me
My soul becoming blackened and charred
I see through your eyes

Vengeance. The fury of my wrath upon you shall pass
Brutality awakened primal urges unveiled

Match your suffering with the man nailed upon the cross
And bathe in the lust of the bloodied heat
Sever the flesh scar the bone
Till punctured and broken your soul is shown

I crave to feel your death
Bring me closer to you
Your pain, your sorrow

Forever inside your fortress of torment
Rotting flesh hidden behind a mask of shallow denial

Match your suffering with the man nailed upon the
And bathe in the lust of the bloodied heat
Sever the flesh scar the bone
Till punctured and broken your soul is shown

This horrid seed twisting churning inside of me
My soul becoming blackened and charred
I see through your eyes

Rotting flesh hidden behind a mask of shallow denial
