I stand alone by you
To regret the finest blood
I want to make a show
With rusty nails to cut
The world around my face,
The planet earth that's great
The show must go on there now
I don't want to be late

You swallow Blood from my veins
Connect my heart and my brain
Just try to open something new
It's my feeling I have for you

I scream for you, I pray for you

See
See

I scream for you
I pray for you
I lay on you
I'm inside you

I scream for you, I pray for you

See
See
