[Hook]

For so long I've been dreaming, this girl is amazing
I'm gonna make it happen, I'm tired of waiting
My girl, my girl, I'm gonna make her my girl
Uh she got me zoning, she know that I'm on it Shawty be faking, she know that I want it
My girl, my girl, I'm gonna make her my girl
My girl, my girl, I'm gonna make her my girl

Say I'm gonna make her my girl, I'ma take her on a ride
We gonn ride slow, uh your lips look ,as ever, kiss me with your eyes closed
Say if I made you mine, would you like to take your time Or would you rush into it, speak my language till it's fluent Like how you gonn give me love if your cardiac is polluted
Look take your pass to the ace town baby, chopping and screwing
No way, would you be, just another domino, I knocked them down
You'll never have to tweet, unless your heart is broke I promise you, I'm not the same, let pleasure scream at your pain
If I'm the reason for your tears, I'll bag the plane
My heart to claim the title of the one who gave you less than you desire
My heart is up for, alright

I do it up, fru girl, you ain't rude enough
I take you out and make sure I be shooted up Put a tie, that compliment your watch You walk like you got a purpose well I got nothing but time

And I'm so intrigued, by your desire to stun
On anybody that's tryina step up to you and compete For real, blow the whistle, this marriage is so official Fire arms of the sky, baby lay a kiss on a missile
I hold it down for my city and for you Dmv on my shoulder, don't blow it, you can assume Lil mama you gotta know, 'for you get up and go I'm tryina make you mine, you know it's up for sure

Listen to me, this girl, this girl she on my mind dog
This girl, I want this girl to be mine dog
This girl, leave me speechless like a mime dog
She jane, I'm Tarzan, swinging on these fine, It's real, she know what the deal is
She was in denial, prolly still is, but it's all good Cause I know it's all love,
She asked me why I do it, and I told her just because,
it's primo!
