Well you see, me and Leonardo have the same profession
He painted pictures, so surreal, you actually feel like you got a personal connection With what was on that canvas
So with that being said, consider this my gallery Portraits of love, the less fortunate tortured Cause they can't afford to drink out of the same fountain that we do But what they don't understand is that we're all just people
Gotta speak up to be heard
And in order for them to wanna keep on listening You gotta be talking bout something So let me , is, this is davinci, the mixtape.
