We've got to make a move
Take a chance
While the night is young
On sweet romance
Though we fuzz and fight
You're my song and dance
Almost every night
Your heart is mine

Yeah, we break up a little bit
Make up a little bit
Shape up a little bit
Try some harder
And that's just a part of it
It's all for a little bit of love

We've come a long, long way
From the world we knew
And the streets we played
In our neighbourhood
No matter what they say
About me and you
We live the way we do
The way we do

Yeah, we break up a little bit
Make up a little bit
Shape up a little bit
Try some harder
And that's just a part of it
It's all for a little bit of love

Ohh, you better believe it (aha)
Darling, ohh,
You better believe it
We all need it

So we break up a little bit
Make up a little bit
Shape up a little bit
Try some harder
And that's just a part of it

It's all for a little bit of love

Heey!

Ohh, you better believe it (aha)
Darling, ohh,
You better believe it
We all need it

I wanna be with you
In every room
I wanna walk with you
As bride and groom
Though we crash and burn
We're still in bloom
It's a give and take
And you're my fate

So we break up a little bit
Try some harder
Yeah, we're always gonna

Break up a little bit

And that's just a part of it
It's all for a little bit of love
