Cali Cali cutta cutta eyoh eyoh

One day when I got hungry
I sold the wooden house
I had to visit uncle Gundij
Who lives in Calcutta town
Uncle Gundij is rich
He's a taxidriverman
And I know that he will help me
As much as he can

A taxidriverman
Is what I want to be
But there are no customers
Who want to ride with me
I don't know why
It could be that I'm almost blind
But every street
In Calcutta I can find

Calcutta, I am a taxidriver in
Calcutta, I drive my little taxi in
Calcutta, taxi taxi taxi in
Calcutta, I am a taxidriverman

I love to drive the taxi
I like it very much
Even though I have no license
I always find the clutch
I can drive without my hands
I can drive without my feet
And I have no problem keeping taxi on the street

Calcutta, I am a taxidriver in
Calcutta, I drive my little taxi in
Calcutta, taxi taxi taxi in
Calcutta, taxi taxi taxi in

Calcutta, I am a taxidriver in
Calcutta, I drive my little taxi in
Calcutta, taxi taxi taxi in

Calcutta, I am a taxidriverman
I am a taxidriverman
