There's this girl I know
I wonder if she knows she's all I think about at night
Watch her as she goes
So beautiful I want to make all of her problems right

You make me feel so...

Perfect when you say my name
You're the only one for me in this whole world
Do you even know how amazing you are You're the number one most extraordinary girl
You're my everything

Can you just stay with me?
So that I might find my
Courage on your gorgeous smile
Hope behind your shining eyes
Love inside your beating heart
The one that struck me from the start

This heart that's in my sunken chest
It beats for you just like the rest
But unlike them I've got the time
To talk with you and make you mine

There's a hundred things that I could say
A million things that I could do
To get up in front of this busy world
And proclaim my undying love for you

But I'll tell you right now that's not who I am
I'm not the daredevil kind of man
So I'll just tell you right now what I need to say is oh baby...
Girl, I love you

So just stay with me

So that I might find my
Courage on your gorgeous smile
Hope behind your shining eyes
Love inside your beating heart

The one that struck me from the start

This heart that's in my sunken chest
It beats for you just like the rest
But unlike them I've got the time
To talk with you and make you mine

There's a hundred things that I could say
A million things that I could do
To get up in front of this busy world
And proclaim my undying love for you

But I'll tell you right now that's not who I am
I'm not the daredevil kind of man
So I'll just tell you right now what I need to say is baby...
Oh, I love you
