Always growin never far from home,
As we sail on down the road,
I wanna know what time has told.

Far from knowing what the future holds,
Just as long as the winters cold,
I wanna know what time has told.

I wanna know what time has told,
I wanna know what time has told.

Always growin, far from knowing,
Always growin never far from home,
As we sail on down the road,
I wanna know what time has told.

Always growin never far from home,
As we sail on down the road,
I wanna know what time has told.

I wanna know what time has told,
I wanna know what time has told.

If there's a difference I wanna know,
Like the summer's letting go,
I wanna see what there is to show.

Walk the distance, the lay of the land,
Teach me how to understand,
I wanna know all that I can.

Always growin never far from home,
As we sail on down the road,
I wanna know what time has told.

Always growin never far from home,
As we sail on down the road,
I wanna know what time has told.

Always growin, far from knowing,
Always growin, far from knowing,
