Until tomorrow
Until tomorrow
The only voice was far away
Until tomorrow
The only sound was my mistake Until tomorrow it's all i can say

Take the time to find the world another way i wanna be more than yesterday and somehow find a way to this new religion if the world can compromise another faith
i wanna be more than yesterday and somehow find a way to your new religion if the world collapses i know (i know) i wanna be yours in time and somehow find the way to your new religion
if the world collapses i know (i know)
and somehow find a way to this new religion

It seems it's more than i can carry on it seems it's more than i can take it seems the time is finally now i think i have the right to speeeeeeak

Take them all together and shove 'em off Keep them all together and keep 'em warm
Take them all together and shove 'em off
