She's so nice, naive and beautiful

She's only known heartache and pain
She's never known pain like this
She stands alone defending her name

Know that she's trying to be who she is Well, is it so wrong to be who we are
When all that she's done is fail?

?Cause she's so nice, naive and beautiful
Why does she keep taking advantage?
Why does she live in a world so cold?
She takes advantage of the nice, naive and the beautiful

Cold is the throne of her hardened heart
No one has seen the softest part
Day after night she holds an ache

But won't budge to show the secret layers
Well, is it so wrong to hang onto hurt?
Maybe she could set it free

?Cause she's so nice, naive and beautiful
Why did she get taken for granted?
Why does she live in a world so cold?
He took advantage of the nice, naive and the beautiful

If you've been there, you know
If you're still there, hang on
We're all dealt our lumps of coal
What you do with it can turn beautiful

Well, there's life outside of your madness
And there's a face behind every scar
But there's a love overflowing with gladness

Get out of that place that's restraining your love
I said, "Get out of that place that's restraining you love"

She's so nice, naive and beautiful
She's so nice, naive and beautiful
