You ran around
Inside my head
When you passed out
I felt dead
And I realized
You make me live

And when my world
Starts to cave in
You jump inside
And take my hand
No matter where
You are there

Will I ever see
What you could see in me?
Or do I just believe
That we will always be and dream? Yeah

Well, I will never be
The same and when they see
That you and I were meant to be
They'll just believe why we are together

You are my light
You are my star
You are my sunshine
And my dark
You are the everything
I dreamed about

You are the guy
Who stole my heart
I am the girl
You're always fighting for
We have a love people dream about
A real life fairytale

I thought that I
Would be alone
You caught my eye
And I was home

And I realized
That this is love

I see the world
Through different eyes
I look at you
By my side
No matter where
You're always there

Will I ever see
What you could see in me?
Or do I just believe
That we will always be and dream? Yeah

Well, I will never be
That you and I were meant to be
They'll just believe why we are together

You are my light
You are my star
You are my sunshine
And my dark
You are the everything

You are the guy
Who stole my heart
I am the girl
We have a love people dream about

Dream with me
Make me believe
That this is a real life fairytale

You are my light
You are my star
You are my sunshine
And my dark
You are the everything
I dreamed about

You are the guy
Who stole my heart
I am the girl

A real life fairytale

A real life fairytale
