We're onto you
And your sad facade
Who will you be today?
What was your goal again?

On your side of town you walk so tall
Casting stones while casting shadows

You all line up at the storefront watching your reflections
Never looked better before
Onlookers follow you around
Begging for an encore

But once you cross the line
Your sky will be shut down
We can tell when you've been lying
You're in our town now

We'll have a standoff if you want
But I warn you, the truth is strong

You paint yourself such a pretty picture
Your words decorate where reality can't
Each of you holds such prestigious positions
On the city committee in your fantasy land

But once you cross the line
Your sky will be shut down
We can tell when you've been lying
You're in our town

We're onto you
We see right through your costume
We know the truth and what you are
You've been found out, found out, woah-oh-oh-oh

And once you cross the line
Your sky will be shut down
We can tell when you've been lying
You're in our town now

You may think we'll be surprised
So predictable
You're not worth our time
We've got our hands full

We're onto you
We see right through your costume
We know the truth and what you are
You've been found out, found out, woah-oh-oh-oh

We're onto you
We see right through your costume
We know the truth and what you are
You've been found out, found out, woah-oh-oh-oh

Woah-oh-oh-oh
Woah-oh-oh-oh
You've been found out, found out, woah-oh-oh-oh
