I try and try to let them go
To shut them up and let the show go on
Smother them 'til they're gone

I go to work, they meet me there
With greasy jaws and I can barely think
Of anything but the colour red

I know they're out there
Telling me to let them in
I'm hearing voices
They're shouting over and over again

I know they're out there
They always know just what to say
With one foot in the door
They've found a way in

I felt his eyes on me
He was watching me sleep
I felt his eyes on me
He was watching me sleep

My gaze is fixed upon the door
Is it my imagination or do I
Feel those razor-sharp eyes?
The air is thick and dark again
Deadbolt is meaningless when enemies
Stab at me from the inside out

(I do the best that I can)

I know they're out there
Telling me to let them in
I'm hearing voices
They're shouting over and over again

I know they're out there
They always know just what to say
With one foot in the door
They've found a way in

Found a way
They're a part of me
Though I don't want them to be

Found a way
They're a part of me

I know they're out there
Telling me to let them in
I'm hearing voices
They're shouting over and over again

I know they're out there
Telling me to let them in
I'm hearing voices
They're shouting over and over again

I know they're out there
They always know just what to say

I felt his eyes on me
He was watching me sleep
