Chorus:

Tell me that you're all right
Yeah everything is all right
Oh please tell me that you're all right
Yeah everything is all right

Give me a reason
To end this discussion
To break with tradition
Fall and divide
Cause I hate the ocean, theme parks and airplanes
Talking with strangers waiting in line
I'm through with these pills that make me sit still
Are you feeling fine?
Yes I feel just fine

Chorus

Think of the things I do when I'm nervous
Like cleaning the oven or checking my tires
Counting the number of tiles in the ceiling
Head for the hills, the kitchen's on fire
I used to rely on self medication
I guess I still do that from time to time
But I'm getting better at fighting the future
Today you'll be fine
Yes I'll be just fine

Chorus

So give me a reason
To end this discussion
To break with tradition
To fall and divide
So let's not get carried
Away with the concepts
A premonition
I don't wanna waste your time

Chorus X2

And everything's fine. X4
