It's passed some time
Since we've passed time
I'd like some time
To really talk a while
About what you've been feeling
How have you put some things in place
It still feels strange
I never thought we could be
Like this

Does life break you down to
Unconscious compromise
Or just that we grow when we
Change what feels right

Sun shines
On my shoulders warm
And I remember
How we used to shine
And I still feel close to you
I hope that you do to

It's passed some time
Since we've passed some time
And in this time
I keep remembering
I know I did something
I broke from the fold
But I'd lost my faith
And just couldn't go on with
No change

Does life break you down to
Unconscious compromise
I think that we grow when we
Change what feels right
When rain fell
On our shoulders hard
We talked of days when
Our sun would shine
And I still feel close to you
I hope that you do to

And I still feel close to you
