Take my heart and beat it

Take me when you need it, take me to the start Of when we both assumed it, of when we played the part
Now we're empty handed, a pretty parting card
Words when you don't mean it
Cut without the scar

My mind is stuck in the middle, of what the signs could bring
And days are strange and they're muddled to me, to me

I'm the one who cannot keep you
He's a silent player saying "Thrill me, move me, just don't see me"
[x2]

Fill me up and leave it, fill me up and go Proof is when you mean it, when time gives way to flow Leave me empty hearted, leave me on my own Take my heart and beat it, I could be alone

My mind is stuck in the middle, won't ever ride the same
And days are crazed from the fighting in me, in me

I'm the one who cannot keep you
He's a silent player saying "Thrill me, move me, just
don't see me"
[x2]

Take my heart and beat it [x2]

I'm the one who cannot keep you
He's a silent player saying "Thrill me, move me, just
don't see me"
[repeat until end]
