You're afraid, it's all come down
To this place where dreams have fallen to the ground
Just look up, you'll make it through
'cause there's a heavenly being
That's watching over you

[chorus:]

Calling down an angel who will Help you believe
Sending out a prayer, I'm down on my knees
Reaching up to heaven knowing you will someday see
There's hope beyond the struggle
Just hold on
I'm calling down an angel

It's not too late, it's almost over
If you'll just wait you'll feel it lifting off your shoulders
So keep believing, the sun always
Promises a new day
It'll stop the rain, break the chains
And chase the pain away

[repeat chorus]

You've been trying to be so strong
You've been waiting for so long
Will your miracle ever come
Heaven's holding every single tear you cry
And if you start to feel alone just know that I am

[repeat chorus]
