Endless rows of boys and girls
Spreading the news it's better to let go
I'm involved in other lines
I guarantee there will be no excuse
Loyalty to lunacy
Turn into velocity and run
Romeo against the wall
Grant him no adrenaline at all
Pull the trigger julia
Grandiose there's nothing more
To wreck
Velocity
How can you expect me to come sober
When there are so many lovers in the parks
How can you expect me to come sober
With all the lifeless voices in my head
This is just a private war
I am stuck here nowhere else to go
Pavloved insecurity
Look at me this isn't me out there
Gliding flight identities
You must feel ridiculous right now
I am tired of being awake
Close the case there's nothing more to say
How can you expect me to come sober
When there are so many lovers in the parks
How can you expect me to come sober
With all the lifeless voices in my head
