This train it goes this way, tonight we can't go back It's all that I can wait for While I was standing here you took your high heels off
And let the sun sink in and kick it back

Leave all your morals behind
'Cause we will party from the inside
Don't check that watch, you're here to stay
And we will dance and dance and dance the night away

And we were dropping bombs with our sneakers on And we were dancing in a minefield with a bottle of whiskey
'Cause you can't tell us what to do
And we were winning the war with a lighter and a peace
pipe

And through the barricades they'll push their hate
And we were makin' noise with electric toys
And there were boys kissing boys
At the moment when the cops came

They said hey we won't run away
And they pushed us back and we pushed them back Yeah, we held our ground in their morality police state Kick us out and we'll be back again tonight if not today

The girls looked beautiful in blue
One took my hand said I love you
I know I'll never know your name
Yeah, but its okay, we'll love for just today

We were dropping bombs with our sneakers on And we were dancing in a minefield with bottle of whiskey
'Cause you can't, you can't, you can't tell us what to do
And we were winning the war with a lighter and a peace
pipe
And we'll break it down, break it down, break it down, down today

I know we'll deal with it tomorrow

We feel that it's okay to question why, question why, yeah question why
This lifestyle defies the meaning of life but not to us
