I can't breathe
I can't breathe
As I try to make it right, but you won't let me
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
As I try to meet your eyes, but you won't let me

Just to save another heavy heart
Get your mind just a little bit
Go too far
Get your mind just a little bit
Go too far
Get your mind just a little bit
Go too far
Get your mind just a little bit
Make a scar
You will see so clearly even where you are
Get your eyes, make a list, saying where they are
Get your mind just a little bit
Go too far
Get your mind just a little bit

I can't breathe
I can't breathe
As I try to make it right, but you won't let me
I can't breathe
I can't breathe
As I try to meet your eyes, but you won't let me

And here we are on top of the world
Though you never see me
Never top of the world
Though you never see me
Never top of the world
Though you never see me
Never fall apart
Yeah here we are on top of the world
Though you never see me
Never top of the world
Though you never see me
Never top of the world

Though you never see me
Never fall so hard
Yeah here we go
