I've been a lover and I've been a friend
I've been more than your everything
It never seem to matter, to you

I walked the walk, you talked the talk
Promised me your dignity
But in the end you're lying, to me

And when your darkness turns to light
We'll be too late to make things right
You never thought this through, did you?

Lessons learned and fingers burned
You told me just history
Can't turn back on what I've seen

Whatever happened to our wonderland
Like your honesty, it's broken too

You played me for a fool

Whatever will be, will be, c'est la vie
You're no good for me
Now I see, c'est la vie

Whatever will be

Whatever will be, will be, c'est la vie
You're no good for me
Now I see, c'est la vie
[X2]

And when your darkness turns to light
We'll be too late to make things right
You never thought this through, did you?

Lessons learned and fingers burned
You told me just history
Can't turn back on what I've seen
