Aren't you tired?
Tired of the same old thing?
Must be hard being that girl everyone wants to be.

Aren't you sick?
Sick of the same old lines?
Must be exhausting hearing them all the time.

Aren't you bored sick of the same old guys?
The same old clubs. the same old bands everyone wants to see.

Aren't you curious?
Curious to see?
Something that's new? something that's real?
something worth seeing?

I'm sorry, but it's a shame.
I know you're tired of running away
But there's no one who's ever really satisfied.
I know we're not the same
And I'm tired of playing games
And it's been no fun seeing you acting this way.
