"Walk Into The Sun"

Lately I've been feeling different,
Like I've come from outer space,
And i notice something missing
When it's you i can't replace

And as i walk into the sun...
And as i stare across this ocean...
And as i start a brand new day...
But i felt we'd be the same, again.

Up ahead there in the distance
Shadows coming through the haze
You're the only one that listens..
To help me break loose from these chains,

And as i walk into the sun...
And as i stare across this ocean...
And as i start a brand new day...
But i felt we'd be the same, again.

The same again..

Ahh-ah-ah-ah-ah-ahh

And as i walk into the sun...
And as i stare across this ocean...
And as i start a brand new day...
But i felt we'd be the same, again.

And as i walk into the sun...
And as i stare across this ocean...
And as i start a brand new day...
But i felt we'd be the same, again.
