Well the race is on now
But we're goin too slow
Cause the reasons on trial
On the television show
And the nets closing in
As we sit in our homes
The nets closing in
As we're sitting alone

With the head lights flashin
And the bullets ringin out
They're comin for the kids
That were thinking out aloud
And they're not even sure
That the wars been fought and won
Before the time of greed
Before time had begun

Lay down ya guns that beat has won
The reason for the treasons already been sung
Lay down ya guns that beat has won
The reason for the treasons already been sung

Well they're kickin down doors
And they're running up stairs
But they won't catch us dreamin
Or bowing to their fears
They'll never understand
And they'll never even hear
The winds of change are comin
And they're blowin everywhere

With the head lights flashin
And the bullets ringin out
They're comin for the kids
That were thinking out aloud
And they're not even sure
That the wars been fought and won
Before the time of greed
Before time had begun

Lay down ya guns that beat has won

The reason for the treasons already been sung
Lay down ya guns that beat has won
The reason for the treasons already been sung

They take away your future
And they take away your friends
They take away your choices
For the means but not the ends
But we're not gonna take it
We'll keep standing till we fall
And we'll just keep on fighting
With our backs against the wall

With the head lights flashin
And the bullets ringin out
They're comin for the kids
That were thinking out aloud
And they're not even sure
That the wars been fought and won
Before the time of greed
Before time had begun

Lay down ya guns that beat has won
The reason for the treasons already been sung
Lay down ya guns that beat has won
The reason for the treasons already been sung
Lay down ya guns that beat has won
The reason for the treasons already been sung
Lay down ya guns that beat has won
The reason for the treasons already been sung
