I've said it all before in so many words
And I'll say it once again
Until the meaning is lost
There's nothing to untangle
It's all upfront
I'll say I'm leaving again
But I'll come back just the same for more

And it feels like I've been Falling forever
While their fields of love
Have looked on amazed

That I had
So much time
So much life

But nothing has given way

And they'll use up
All that I've given
And turn it
Into nothing I'd miss

Until I'm out of time
Out of life
But they don't seem to mind
It's all the same

I've said that I've been falling
But I kind of lied
It's all just in my head
I don't even use it that much

So stop your listening
And leave me be
But I forgot I let you loose
And now you just can't get enough
Out of me

And it feels like
I've been falling forever

While their fields of love
Have looked on amazed

That I had
So much time
So much life

But nothing's going away

And they'll use up
All that I've given
And turn it into nothing I'd miss

Until I'm out of time
Out of life...

Whatever, I don't care
It's all the same

And it feels like
Have looked on amazed

That I had
So much time
So much life

You're all the same
