Go and get your towel
You've an appointment upstairs
Come out, come out, come out
Did you remember to wash behind your ears?

Hey hey little
Hey little
Hey hey little, soon you'll be big

Saw the priest two hours ago
In a fancy dress ball wedding gown mess backing into the driveway
You ask me "Where does the sun sit?"

Hey hey little
Hey little
Hey hey little, soon you'll be big

Plasticene and paper cups
Walking with an upper cut in your thigh
On a daydream station
You whistle up to summon your pets

Hey hey little
Hey little
Hey hey little, soon you'll be big
