"Long White Cross"

We keep this so dramatic
Its purpose will be added
Cheap whores, fall asleep, walls
Profession or performance
You walk upon the waters
We saw by the sea shore

Now it's time for the rains
To keep falling, keep falling on me
I'm tired and ashamed
So please call me, please call me again, again

The system's so erratic
Paint the earth with static
City glows as the season slows
In pretty little boxes
We poison all the chocolates
She wants what she wants
Now it's time

I caught on, too tired, so high
You won, you lost, the long white cross
Too kind she was
Now it's gone so long so long so long

The readers on the pavement
Suggest that we're all tainted
Empty yield in black fields

These common weak bubbles
Drench the wooden supples
Loosen the noose it's like fickle deuce

Now it's time for the rains
To keep falling, keep falling on me
I'm tired and ashamed
So please call me, please call me again, again

I caught on, too tired, so high
You won, you lost, the long white cross
Too kind she was

Now it's gone so long so long so long

You won, you lost, the long white cross
Too kind she was
