Half back lover,
remember steady set go Lonesome number,
cancelling your remaining row

Just remember you'll get plenty today
Your pull out letter again

Past public search you,
they're plaguing your groove Wants and numbers,
passing on the glue

Pry
Oh don't you pry me out

Noon

You're a little bit sick
Do what you need
And I'm so rich
With all your greed
Come and see for yourself
And tell me do you agree

So sour cream bitch
Go on listen to me
Well Hell yeah I'm on your lips Come on taste and see

Bet you can touch it up yourself,
oh it's not wrong
Yes you can touch it up yourself,
it's not wrong
Ohhhhh hooooooooooooo
Dana da danaaaaaaaa danaaaaa

No no no no no nono no onoonononononooooooooo
