Oh baby, unlike you I'm trying hard to get with you I guess I'm not so into you It's unfortunate I'm not used to any other space Lately I've been trying to erase me

See I'm not into hating me, I've already been driving me crazy
But I can concentrate, reach me 'cause I got you babe completely Am I unsure? Absolutely contaminate me so well I believe you now truly, I care about you so deeply God I wish I believed me, I wonder you so much, I've been touched

I think everything's okay, I mean if everything's alright
Almost everyone I know believes in God and love
So if everything's okay, I mean if everything's alright Well, then Sympathy, you should be the superstar that you are

Just say so give the word and I'm Vertigo
The existential romeo, my emotions teach me well With a God complex teach me, this anger tries to impeach me
And considerate idiosyncrasies damaged me so well that I can't tell

'Cause I think everything's okay, I mean if everything's alright
Almost everyone I know believes in God and love
So if everything's okay, I mean if everything's alright
you are

Dr. Strange Love, you should be Dr. Estranged Love Everything that ever was you're so lucky you get to be you
And you're all the time I do everything with you despite
you See I don't dance but I try to Apathy knows you well, 'cause you're a superstar

And everything's okay, I mean everything's alright
Almost everyone I know believes in God and love
So if everything's okay, I mean everything's alright Well, then Sympathy you should be the superstar that
you are

I think everything's okay, I mean if everything's alright
Almost everyone I know believes in God and love
So if everything's okay, I mean if everything's alright
Well, then Sympathy you should be the star that you are

Oh Sympathy, you should be the star that you are Oh Sympathy, you should be the star that you are Sympathy, you should be the star that you are Sympathy, you should be the superstar that you are
