I don't kiss the future like the fortune tellers do
So I can't dream with you at night
Pessimism's hunger changes everything
I wish I walked with faith and not by sight but

You know, with anything you do
There's a hundred people bringing you down

No matter who you are
Don't let 'em make you 'cause they'll break you
Don't let 'em love you 'cause they'll hate you even more

So if no one else believes in you
I'm completely yours, I've got so much faith in you
No matter what this life puts in front of you
You can save this world, I've got so much faith in you

Anyone who knows, who sees renaissance in you
And I have to try and act surprised
"I'm a prime demotivator," says my point of view
I wish I had some cheer to lead you to but

No matter how much good you do
There's a million people wishing you harm

I'm telling you, no matter who you are
Don't let 'em make you 'cause they'll break you
Don't let 'em love you 'cause they'll hate you even more

So if no one else believes in you
I'm completely yours, I've got so much faith in you
No matter what this life puts in front of you
You can save this world, I've got so much faith in you

There's a million things that I could say to you
Don't let 'em change you inside
'Cause anyone who matters will try to understand who you are

If no one else believes in you
I'm completely yours, I've got so much faith in you
No matter what this life puts in front of you

You can save this world, I've got so much faith in you

If no one else believes in you
I'm completely yours, I've got so much faith in you
No matter what this life puts in front of you
You can save this world, I've got so much faith in you

I've got so much faith in you
Faith in you, baby
Faith in you, baby
Faith in you
I've got so much faith in you

Faith in you
Faith in you, baby
Oh ho, I've got so much faith in you
I've got so much faith in you
I've got so much faith in you
