Doo, do do do

its a shame when the mcs think they know I grab a pen and let my mind go free and then they remember and the bells inside will go Don day lon don day lon dong dong its a shame when the mc's want to know what is the secret inside Prince Be
They remember and the bells inside will go
Don day lon don day lon dong dong

Now these are the questions that ring in my ears What are the promblems and why are they here well most problems arouse mainly form human arogance political pride or somethin insignificant But as expected another one occures Its sorta like amnesia but the words don't slur they come crisp and clear for the world to hear This disease of forgetfull mc's and it appears to be growin and growing mc's without knowin' are becomin the worst influence among peers they constantly dream about self esteem I teach one to find and bind is worst fear Its a bug

its a shame when the mcs think they know
they remember and the bells inside will go Don day lon don day lon dong dong
its a shame when the mc's want to know
what is the secret inside Prince Be
They remember and the bells inside will go
Don day lon don day lon dong dong

Now what goes inside these mc's mind are their brains waves blocked, or caught on a clotheline? or maybe a Prince rhym to contemplate somethins gotta give, somethin's goin on or maybe their just to deep in idiodicy the practical skill or art of steady modesty we have to be heard, we are the media some say the could be the whole encyclopedia just as peace the to add another peice to this pathetic pie I have the earthquake bass they wanna say it isn't music

I call it a collage, and then i paste it outta music
