The epitome of beauty
An idea that soaks my soul
Your aura does consume me
And throws my mello out of control

I've waited all this life
To capture me a glimpse of the living end
You never say a word
So I replay my memory
Time and time again

I don't want to live another day
And make believe that everything's okay
Where's the good that left and went away
The perfect you, the perfect you, perfect you
A thought so very lovely
But a painful sight to see
Ya always let me down
But I can't seem to let it be

I long to see your smile
Since it's been gone this rhythm has no rhyme
You never say a word
Can I keep my soul, if I lose my mind

[repeat chorus]
