Yeah, in a quest to become colorless
I exhalt my eyes with a most profound trust
Yet they are masters at deception
I wonder why a black 4 leaf clover
Prince Be sends a purple valentine again

(How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?)
Once more my feelings have succeeded in confusing me
(How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?)
But what's most amusing is I like the way it looks
(How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?)

Distorted, isn't it? But it's beautiful
(How does it feel to be?)
Exceptionally beautiful, damn

How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?

And I drift along in a sea of compulsion
Whether or not I'm dead, I have no idea
I'm standing on a hill that overlooks a meadow
And I'm thinking of absolutely nothing

My current mood must resemble electric blue
It's always tranquil, but it makes me bleed

(How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?)
Distorted, isn't it? But it's beautiful
(How does it feel to be?)
Exceptionally beautiful, damn

How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?

And question marks constantly arrest my persona
Ironic how that creates one for me whatever is whatever

A phenomenon that consists of life and death
Hi Mr. Experience, how was your trip to the moon?

I tear my thoughts with my own sarcastically piercing blade
I love you because you make me sick

Distorted, isn't it? But it's beautiful
Exceptionally beautiful, damn

How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?

How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?

How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?

How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be one of the beautiful?
How does it feel to be?
