Holding all the pictures that my life's drawn, I never find a missing love.

Remembering all the rays that have been made, but never cloudy leaving love.

(chorus)

Ask me what it is that makes it special, why is it so real to me?

It's knowing who keeps their place in my heart.

It's knowing how is it I can feel you

It's knowing never will I change my mind, oh baby

When I think about love I think about you

When I think about love I think about you.

Too many times I've turned my emotions on and off,
without realizing what it does,

I know what's moved me and kept me going this far,
but I never questioned what it was.

(chorus)
