Disciples of the Watch

I stand before you, in the name of the one True God,
Who was cast out from heaven, but is alive, in me.

Succeed and You will know the violent raptures of my
Fathers Kingdom, Fail, and you will be condemned to a
Numbing eternity in the blessed bosom of christ.

Chose your side for the final fight,
Dark or Light it's your choice to decide.
In the end the flames will burn it all,
No escape for heaven and hell will fall.

Disciples of the Watch, there must be no reserve, and
The victory can be ours.

Raise your sword and prepare for war!,
Blood will spill, will it be his or yours?

Kill the Nazarene Disciples of the Watch,
Find yourself a new god, someone you can trust!,
Christ was just a wiseman, not the son of god, a man, a
Prophet he was not.

Disciples of the Watch

See him fall up there on the cross, the weak messiah,
With the senses for a god.

Kill the nazarene Disciple of the Watch, Find yourself
A new god, someone you can trust, christ was just a
Wiseman, not the son of god, a prophet he was not!

Kill the nazarene, Kill the Nazarene, Kill the Nazarene.
