"For The Nineteen"

Tonight we holed up together, this moment will be last forever.

Tonight there's no regrets, we don't care about the mistakes.

The laugh, the tears, and everything that we've been through.

Will live, will last, in my heart and all of yours too.

We stay in here tonight, to sing a song of our lines.

We came here to get laugh, to show that we're all still the one.

And tonight we'll never forget.

All the memories is kept.

And tonight we'll never forget.

Memories will be kept.

This is not a good bye, it's the start of our life.

Sing along through this night. This night will be our night.

And all the things we've been through, I will never forget you.

This is for the nineteen, this is for all of you.

We stay in here tonight, to sing a song of our lines.

We came here to get laugh, to show that we're all still the one.

And tonight we'll never forget.

All the memories is kept.

And tonight we'll never forget.

Memories will be kept.

This is not a good bye, it's the start of our life.

Sing along through this night. This night will be our night.

And all the things we've been through, I will never forget you.

This is for the nineteen, this is for all of you.

And I'm back!

Here lies Scienza Uno, Arpalor, and Unisenco.

We got Social One, and the one that called ST12.
The laugh, the tears, and everything that we've been through.
Will live, will last, in my heart and all of yours too.

And tonight we'll never forget.
All the memories is kept.
And tonight we'll never forget.
Memories will be kept.

This is not a good bye, it's the start of our life.
Sing along through this night. This night will be our night.
And all the things we've been through, I will never forget you.
This is for the nineteen, this is for all of you.
