If I said Maya build it up, she would make it high enough
Let it show, let it show.
Oh how we heard our hearts, and the sound was loud
enough
Let it go, let it go.
The saintly disguise we wore when we were young
That look in your eyes, never regret what we've done

Your epic fails. Set them on fire (on fire)
All your betrayals. Set them on fire, on fire
Come with me and run away. Choices in your mind
Oh joy and chaos. Set them on fire, on fire

Thought I was closer to your heart.
I would never be without, never no never no
If I had played a better part, would it have been enough Started a riot the day that you left, I found fame (for all) Screaming in lights sirens still spell out your name (like fire)

Your epic fails. Set them on fire (on fire)
All your betrayals. Set them on fire, on fire
Come with me and run away. Choices in your mind
Oh joy and chaos. Set them on fire, on fire

Screaming in lights sirens still spell out your name (like
fire)

Your epic fails. Set them on fire (on fire)
All your betrayals. Set them on fire, on fire
Come with me and run away. Choices in your mind
Oh joy and chaos. Set them on fire, on fire
