Can't hold you now
Far from your front door
Don't cross me out
Leave me in your book

I'm not around
I can't come back down
There's no way out
For a long time now

I need everybody
To understand what it feels like
I need everybody, everyone to understand
I need everybody
To understand what it feels like
I need everybody, everyone to understand

This distance sounds,
Like the saddest song
I can't break out,
Of this feeling's wrong

So make a sound
That drowns all else out
And make it loud
Fill the whole wide world

And teach everybody
To understand what it feels like

And make everybody, everyone understand
And teach everybody
To understand what it feels like
And make everybody, everyone understand

Oh I wish I could run to you
Oh I wish I could run to you
Oh I wish I could run to you
Oh I wish I could run to you

I wish I could run to you

I wish I could run to you
I wish I could run to you
I wish I could run to you
Oh I wish I could run to you

I need everybody,
To understand what it feels like,
I need everybody, everyone to understand
I need everybody
To understand what it feels like
I need everybody, everyone to understand
