Everybody got their hopes and dreams
Everytime I wake up, I feel the pain
Like a thousand pins and needles falling like rain
Alone in my bedroom, alone with my pain
I try to drown it out with whiskey and things
But when I dry up I wanna die again
Grab another bottle, get high again
Just prayin that my momma don't cry again

Sometimes it feels like a bad dream
A bad dream
When can I go home
Sometimes it feels like a bad dream
A bad dream
When can I go home

When we was kids seemed like life was easy
Be home before dark, don't sit too close to the TV
A couple of years later, gettin high, gettin laid
Get your hustle on, get money, get paid
Looking for the answers, confused about life
Can't trust no one, can't do no right
Your girlfriend fucked your best friend
Everybody knew and didn't say nothin'

Sometimes it feels like a bad dream
A bad dream
When can I go home
Sometimes it feels like a bad dream
A bad dream
When can I go home

I don't know you but I'm 'bout to know you real good
I don't love you but I'm 'bout to love you real good
Now you should know I'm a man of my word
Everything that I get I deserve, and you gonna learn that
I'll be the brother with mass appeal
I got honeys open and ready so I close mass deals
Shit, I ain't a player I just fuck alot
I get on top alot, like gettin head up in the parking lot

Yeah, my honeys fall in love alot
I woulda a club a lot
But ain't no way I'm 'bout to tie the not Shit, coz I don't love these hos
And I'd advise you not to fuck that ho
Yeah I'd advise you self-destruct that ho
Silly of me to fall in love with that ho
Silly of me to put my trust in a ho
You should know, once a ho, always a ho

Sometimes it feels like a bad dream
A bad dream
When can I go home
Sometimes it feels like a bad dream
A bad dream
When can I go home
Sometimes it feels like a bad dream
A bad dream
When can I go home
Sometimes it feels like a bad dream
A bad dream
When can I go home
