I could not sleep last night
That's not your problem
I've got my problems

I watched you sleep last night
That's not your problem
I've got my problems

It's hard to understand
It gets so hard to be your man
I would give you anything
But I don't have anything
Just these crazy daydreams and they are not worth anything

I got so hi last night
That's not your problem
I've got my problems

I tried to forget my life
That's not your problem
I've got my problems

It's hard to understand...

Take your time - take your time

Hey girl
I'm so glad that we could have this time together
So I could let you know just exactly how I feel Ya see - it's been been hard to talk to you cuz
You never listen - you're so selfish
You never shut up!!

And you know I don't have any money and I can barely pay my bills
But you don't care
You're so selfish
What do you want from me?

It's hard to understand

It's get so hard to be your man...
