Ain't no more sunshine, just rain and cold suffering

Generation born to die with their eyes wide open

The clock strikes

The wrong rights

The mob rules

The second armageddon, igniting the lit fuse

No turning back& every soldier is on point

Ready to die, the confrontation coming, ready of not

It's on again, it's time to say your prayers again

It's not the end, just the beginning of the end

(chorus)

Is it hard?

Yea, I can hold it down like that

Is it real?

Yea, you know I break it down like that

Is it rough?

Don't even try to front like that

I'm on fire baby, a big dog will hunt like that

Another day, another buster wanna battle me

Another mamma crying, now her baby is in casualty

I'm ready nigga, slice like a machete nigga, got fatty nigga,

Never spend it on betty nigga

I hit and run, never stressing to look back

When I look back, I think about the love I never had

Then I wake up, I get f**ked up and I get even

Approach you from the front

While in your back a knife I'm leaving

(chorus)

The sky is falling, I don't care

I just want to feel good

Her train's leaving, she don't care

She just wants to feel good

The world is dying, we don't care

We just want to feel good

It's all over, we don't care

We just want to feel good

No- we can't compromise like that

No- we can't conform like that

I'm saying f**k you and f**k the norm like that

Revolt and transform like that

Make a difference

Have an impact

It won't stop raining, it's flooding, revelation was all true

You drew first blood, jesus is coming to take you

Coming to break you, make you just like new

Satan laughing, spreads his wings and gets a new tattoo

A new platinum chain, a new pinky ring, the rolex, the benz,

The huggy bear pimp thing

Nigga it's midnight, never forget where you come from

Keep your mouth shut

Back the f**k up

Watch what you doing

(chorus)
