I can see the sun going down
I can see the sun going down
I can see the sun going down
I can see the sun going down

Well I tried to make some sense of all this
I tried to work it out
I don't know how i got caught up in the middle of all this i just know I got to get the fuck out

Well I tried to change the channel and move on
I tried to bite my tongue
I don't know how I could be so fuckin stupid for so long
I dont know why I had to be the one

This has gotta be some misunderstanding
No, this is not my point of view

It's all over
(When you know it's all over)
I know you feel it
(I know you feel it)
It's all over
(You know it's all over)
How can I hold on?

It's all over
(You know it's all over)
I know you feel it
(I know you feel it)
It's all over
(You know it's all over)
But it's all I do
Ooooh

Well I feel like such a clown this time
Well I feel like giving up
Every single one of my friends let me down this time
When I was dying, they were living it up

Well I could not control the wound over stars or myself

I cannot control the sun
I don't know how I could sleep in that bed for so long
I don't know why I had to be the one

This has gotta be some misunderstanding
No, this is not my point of view.

It's all over
(When you know it's all over)
I know you feel it
(I know you feel it)
It's all over
(You know it's all over)
How can I hold on?

It's all over
(You know it's all over)
I know you feel it
(I know you feel it)
It's all over
(You know it's all over)
But it's all I do
Ooooh

I can see the sun going down
I can see the sun going down
I can see the sun going down
I can see the sun going down

Well it feels so quiet before the storm
Well it feels just like a dream
I shelter myself in hope
I know why the caged bird sings...
