"Song To The King"

I've felt the thunder speak of Your name
And I've watched the lightning
Your glory proclaim I've gazed upon mountains that testify of Your fame And I've heard the waves on the ocean echo their refrain
This is my song, my song to the King
And I stand in awe of Your majesty And I don't have much but I give everything
This is my song, my song to my King
It seems all creation is longing for You From here to the farthest star they're worshipping You And who am I God
that You are mindful of me I'm simple in heart, simple in song
I'm a small offering (Chorus)
And all of creation hesitates now
All of the angels stop singing now
As the King of all glory listens to my song (Chorus)
