1st Verse:

Well he gave her everything a woman could ever need or ever want
She was his whole world
A home in a quiet little town, he kept her safe and warm
Oh how he loved that girl
But out of the clear blue sky she told him she was leaving
She didn't love him anymore
The storm from out of nowhere went blowing through his soul
And his knees hit the floor

Chorus:

And his heart broke like crashing thunder
And his tears fell just like the pouring rain Somewhere in his mind he turned a little colder
And the one he loved just said goodbye
There hasn't been a heartache like that come through here in a long time

2nd Verse:

A little time went by, and in her heart she realized
What she'd done was wrong
She packed her things and headed back to that little town
She drove all night long (all night long) And the lightning flashed when she pulled into the driveway, and ran to the door
But the shadows on the wall said all there was to say
And she saw every word

Chorus:

And her heart broke like crashing thunder
And her tears fell just like the pouring rain Somewhere in her mind she turned a little colder
And the one she loved just said goodbye
There hasn't been a heartache like that come through
here in a long time
