Baby, you can see that it's a lie
What he said to you
Made you sad, kind of made me glad
'Cause I got the same from you

I ain't your fool, you'd better go away
Don't apologize
No words you'd say wouldn't be okay
I'm through listenin' to your lies

You thought I'd be here, you came back
You were so darn sure of yourself
But just look around, see it ain't so
You'd better start lookin' for help

So many times you stood and laughed at me
Now I'll take my turn
You've had your way up until today
Guess that it's time you learned

'Cause I got the same from you
